

Internship communication & marketing with strong affinity for social media

At Van Rees Group we are proud to celebrate our 200 years' jubilee in 2019. Once started as a family business in Zwolle, the group is now one of the leading international suppliers and processors of tea with 12 offices worldwide, employing 150 staff globally.

For an intern there could be an opportunity to bring a 200 year old company to the next century when it comes to communication via social media.

JOIN THE WORLD OF TEA DURING OUR JUBILEE YEAR

From the Head Office in Rotterdam various initiatives have been developed to mark the jubilee of which major part is related to written communication and development of social media, organisation of jubilee event but also corporate gifts and attention for staff and sustainability initiatives. Ideas are there, now we need someone to coordinate all activities in corporation with our communication/PR advisors and Management of the Group.

We are looking for a creative expert in communication who can support us with all aspects from content creation, planning and execution of above initiatives incl. weekly updates via social media. This requires a flexible attitude, pro-activity and as a person you are efficient and well-organised. Allowance depending on experience and contribution.

Are you interested in this internship (starting latest 1 February)? Send your resume and motivation to Nelleke Hollanders at hrm@vanrees.com. For further information you can call 010-4021777.
